

Grow Happy with Rooty

My name is Rooty.
I'm a carrot, but you
probably already knew that.
They call me "Rooty"
because I'm a root vegetable.

I have the best
job in the whole
wide world.

I get to grow
happiness.

It's hard to believe that happiness
could be squeezed into a little tiny seed, but let's plant some and see what happens next.

When you tend to your garden,
your heart grows happy.

When you smell
your garden,
your brain
grows happy.

When you eat your garden, your belly
grows happy.

When you share your garden, the world grows
happy too!
